

GERMAN SHIPS WILL BE USED TO BRING HOME YANKS

300,000 Tons Will Soon Be Available for U. S.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—German ships of approximately 300,000 tons flying the American flag and furnishing the United States an additional troop carrying capacity of more than 500,000 men a month will be ready to put to sea during the next five weeks according to Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the United States shipping board who returned today on the Transport Levethian. Mr. Hurley left here last November with Herbert Hoover of the food administration to make a study of the shipping situation for consultation with the War department for getting American soldiers home and arrange for sending food supplies to Europe.

"From information now at hand," Mr. Hurley said, "it appears that the total available German passenger tonnage suitable for carrying troops, is over 600,000 tons gross.

"The United States share of this tonnage is about approximately 300,000 gross tons shipping suitable for the repatriation of American troops. This should give the United States an additional troop carrying capacity over 60,000 men per month.

Will Be Manned by Germans.

"A number of the German ships are ready to put to sea at once. It is planned they shall be manned temporarily by German officers and crews and shall proceed at once to British or French ports under the direction of the naval armistice commission. Upon arrival at such British or French ports, German officers and crews will be repatriated and the ships turned over to the United States navy to man and operate for account of the war department."

"The navy department in anticipation of these new demands has made preparations and already assembled a large number of officers and men to man and officer all German ships as they may be delivered."

Regarding the shipping situation generally Mr. Hurley had but little to say. "During my absence I have learned a good deal as regards to shipping from an international standpoint," Mr. Hurley said. He said he did not consider the wage question a serious matter. The wages of seamen of the United States, Great Britain, Holland and some of the Scandinavian countries are now very close together, he declared.

Mr. Hurley directed attention to the great work which is being done by the newly-built vessels of the merchant marine in exporting surplus food products.

the American flag. Of this number 64 were built by the present shipping board, organized in August, 1917. These sixty-four home built ships report a deadweight tonnage of 555,430. The European relief fleet of the American Merchant Marine, Mr. Hurley said is the largest engaged in any special service under the merchant flag.

Here are the gist of two news items, recently appearing side by side:

New York City still shelters 10,000 draft evaders and delinquents. Plans have been made to round them up, and the punishment they will receive will be as severe as the draft law were still in active operation.

Secretary Baker today ordered the release of 113 conscientious objectors, held at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, the remission of the unexecuted portions of their sentences, and their honorable restoration to duty.

How the conscientious objectors of New York must envy the delinquents of Fort Leavenworth! Harvey's Weekly.

SERVICE—AND ITS MEANING.

"February and March, 1918, tho they were the hardest, coldest, rainiest two months of my life, were also the happiest. I had been preaching 'service' all my life, but I never knew what hardship and suffering were until that great experience came to me. I never knew before what it was to lift such heavy loads that my ankles were strained all the time; nor to have my hands cut to pieces handling duck boards; nor to have my whole body ache with mental and physical weariness. I never knew the meaning of 'Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden,' tho I have preached on it a good many times. The next time I preach from that text I shall remember 250-pound boxes of chocolate that I unloaded from box cars day after day. I shall remember the Sunday that it snowed all day and we had three cars of tent poles, flooring, and but material to unload, including twenty-five heavy stoves. Service will have a new meaning for me in the years to come, and the men who serve the world in hard grueling tasks a new glory."—"What Has War Done to Preachers?" in the March Red Cross Magazine.

Every time Secretary Glass talks about the next Liberty loan he adds a billion or so and is now suggesting that it will be necessary to make this "Victory" loan one for $10,000,000,000, which is twice the volume of the last loan. Let us hope that the secretary is setting the figure big so that when the final announcement of the loan size is made that the figures can be reduced and the task thus sound easier.

NO CAUSE FOR WORRY.

The Providence Journal has raised the question as to regularity in the announcement made from Washington of the ratification of the dry amendment. That publication declares that the announcement came before formal notice of the action of the necessary number of states had been given, and that the notice was premature and improper. The advocates of prohibition will not be much disturbed by this story for if the announcement was improperly given the record can still be corrected. Nobody thinks for a minute that the will of more than 75 per cent of the states of this union is going to be set aside on a mere technicality.

AFTER PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Springfield is making an effort at Washington to secure a contribution for a new federal building. Bloomington has hopes of a new $300,000 federal building there, and so the contest goes on between cities large and small to take thousands from the public treasury for special buildings in their own community. There are some rare exceptions but as a general rule a public building in a city is larger than the needs require and is maintained by the government at a cost far in excess of prices at which adequate quarters could be leased.

Just now the argument, already threadbare, is being urged that public buildings should be encouraged in order to provide the necessary work. People who are advocating this program should think about the war debt and the revenue taxes that must prevail for a number of years to come.

MILITANT SUFFRAGISTS LOSE.

It will be doubly disappointing to the sponsors for the equal suffrage amendment to lose by the narrow margin of one vote in the senate. This is especially hard after the safe figure by which the measure won in the house. The militant suffragists should be charged up with that defeat, for it is said their picketing methods have so disgusted certain senators that these senators are unalterably opposed to the suffrage movement.

President Wilson who was the particular object of most of the attacks, was able to set aside any bias he might have had on this account and cabled from France urging passage of the amendment. But enough senators could not be moved to constitute the required two-thirds. Militant suffrage demonstrations in this country accomplish nothing and in fact are detrimental to the suffrage cause.

POSTAGE RATES.

While the talk of increased taxes continues there is some relief in thinking about the lower postage rates in prospect, and the return of 2 cents postage which is expected in June. The Christian Science Monitor suggests that appreciation of the 2-cent postage would be the keener if people would but turn back in memory to the postage of 100 years ago. At that time postage was paid in cash for there were no stamps at all until the faces of Franklin and Washington became familiar on the 5-cent and 10-cent stamps issued in 1847, and figured by date.

One sheet of paper was considered a letter, and it cost 6 cents to send such a letter not over thirty miles; 10 cents for not over eighty miles; 18½ cents for not over 400 miles; and 25 cents for a longer journey. No wonder the people of the time practiced a small and economical handwriting! And even so, one had to go to the postoffice to get the letter, for free delivery came in only in Lincoln's administration.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

Blue Language.

The war has made us more profane, which gives my gentle soul a pain. In often time we used to swear when sick or burdened down with care; if in the darkness we arose, and on the door jamb broke a nose, we'd spring some red-hot part of speech which made the weary welkin scorch. But when no stern occasion called for language that would scorch and scald, our speech was soothing and refined, the output of the placid mind. But now we cuss the whole day long, and no one seems to think it wrong. The stories in our public prints are full of words of "lurd" and "lud", and even the pastors shock the pews with the sort of adjectives they use. Profanity was always coarse; and now it's losing all its force, when it is sprung in constant flow. In war it may have been all right this damning everything in sight, for we were racked by dread and doubt, and cusswords seemed to help us out. But now that peace is come again let's be polite and gentle men, and quit this foolish, stupid stunt of pushing swear words to the front.

STAR CAMP MEMBERS

ENJOYED MOCK WEDDING.
An innovation in the way of entertainment was provided Tuesday night for the members of Star Camp No. 171, N. E. A., by a self-appointed committee. Following the regular lodge session the members were asked to again be seated as a wedding was about to take place. Much astonishment and speculation was the immediate consequence and it was not until after the affair was nearly concluded that the joke appeared.

Those persons interested in the "stunt" filed into the lodge room dressed in garb to most effectively prevent recognition and in addition each wore a black mask. As soon as the plan was revealed there was much merriment over the affair and praise for the perpetrators. The participants were: Virginia Pires, preacher; Vina McMamara, groom; Alta Schneider, bride; Stella Smith, bridesmaid; Georgia Souza, best man; Ryle Menezes, flower girl; Alleen Smith, pianist.

Following the "wedding" an impromptu dance was arranged and refreshments served.

HOW MEMORY SLIPS.

"Isn't this wonderful weather? We have never had anything like it before." This is the statement one frequently hears these days. A Jacksonville business man was talking about it yesterday and said that it was really remarkable how very soon people forget weather facts. Continuing he said: "Why, I remember thirteen years ago this month, I let the contractor for a house and the contractor was able to make the excavation for the foundation. There was so little frost in the ground that it did not interfere at all with the work. As I remember it there were some rains that winter and the roads were not in the condition they are now, but as for being warm the year would compare very well with this one. Unless my memory fails me too, there were several weeks of zero weather later on before the spring days came."

VANDALS IN NICHOLS PARK.

For some years the abandoned swimming hole in Nichols park has been anything but ornamental but last fall and this winter Superintendent Hopper has placed a lot of stones about the banks and planted shrubbery around the borders, making the place look quite respectable. Judge of the feelings of the worthy superintendent, Mr. Hopper on going by the place one day to find that a lot of boys had been taking up the stones expensively placed there and throwing them out on the ice which was not strong enough to bear his weight while he went after them and it will take almost a load to replace the mischief done.

$200.00 Cash Prizes for the best answers

You never saw me, folks, did you, without the famous kettle on my tail? Everybody wonders why it's there. Well I've never told the secret yet, but now I'm going to give everybody who reads this a chance to guess it, and at the same time win one of a number of liberal money prizes. Come one, come all!—Help solve the great mystery!

Here's how to win:

First, there's no string on this contest. Anybody interested in guesses or riddles is urged to send in an answer. All I ask is that you don't use more than 100 words, and that you be sure to mention "Checkerboard Bags" (in which Purina Feeds are always packed). Now, don't be afraid—come on in everybody! The best answers take the prizes—regardless of fancy language or swell handwriting. Plain "Horse Sense" ideas on a post card may win.

Second, sign your name plainly, and also tell me the name of your feed dealer.

Third, mail your guess on or before National Maize Purina Day, That is February 25th.—I selected it specially because my favorite feed, Purina O-Molene, saves my owner 25% of his feed.

Purina O-Molene is wonderful feed for mules and horses. I know, 'cause I'm a mule myself. It is economical, because I like it, and assimilate all of it that I eat. I never have trouble digesting all of my O-Molene. Also, it makes me husky and healthy, so that I can do more work for my owner.

Now then, here are the prizes:

For the best answer the prize will be $100.00

For the next best answer the prize will be $25.00

For the next best answer the prize will be $10.00

To the dealer whose customer wins 1st prize $50.00

To the dealer whose customer wins 2nd prize $10.00

To the dealer whose customer wins 3rd prize $5.00

The judges will be:

WONDERFUL DANCING AT RIALTO THURSDAY

The Dolly Sisters stars of Metro's romantic fantasy "The Million Dollar Dollies," which will be the attraction at Rialto Thursday were born for the screen. The sprightly grace developed by their wonderful dancing qualifies them as exceptional performers for the silver sheet. Director Leonce Perret saw these Dancing Dollies at a prominent vaudeville house in New York and his trained eye was caught by their litheness, their personalities, the expressive-ness of their twinkling feet, their nimble bodies, and their provocative faces. "Absolutely," he said to himself, "the Dolly Sisters are born for the screen."

The Dolly twins, Roszika and Yancy were born abroad and made their first New York appearance in the "Midnight Sons" with Lew Fields.

For three years the Dancing Dollies played under the management of the Shuberts appearing in "The Merry Countess," "Mina Caprice" and at the Winter Garden. The New York Roof featured the Dolly Sisters as a premier dancing attraction. The Dollies have each played individually in one motion picture, previous to their present twin appearance. In Metro's "The Million Dollar Dollies," the Sisters Dolly attain a great triumph.

GUN CLUB ASKS PARK BOARD FOR NEW SITE

Wants One to Take Place of That Destroyed Months Ago to Make Room for Golf Course—Other Matters Discussed.

The park board met in regular session last evening with all members present.

The secretary was instructed to advise Mr. Laming, an applicant for the lease of the large pavilion exclusively for the season that his request could not be granted.

Henry Goebel, representing the gun club, was present and asked the board to name a place in the park which the club might use permanently. The place that has been used by the club in the past cannot be so used in the future as it is now land largely used as a pleasure drive and for golf purposes and other things so that the shooting by the club would be dangerous and inadvisable. A member of the club had expressed the park in company with three of the park board members and a spot near the southeast corner had been suggested as satisfactory to the gun club provided some trees could be removed.

Board to View Proposed Site.

The chair suggested that first all members must go out to the park and see the exact spot and the trees the gun club desired removed and then a vote on the question could be taken and the chair agreed to arrange such a visit at the first opportunity.

The chair announced the desire of the golf club to have some trees removed which were in the way of the players and he suggested that when the members went out to view the proposed site for the gun club the other matter could be investigated.

Mr. Gomes, committee to secure prices on pipe for extending watering system to certain flower beds asked for further time as one of the men from whom he was asking figures was not yet ready to report. Granted.

The matter of seats in central park was brought up and it was the sense of the board that new ones, all steel be chosen. The matter is to be further investigated. Some persons had expressed opposition to the plan of locating and arranging these seats. It is the expectation of the board to locate them about the circular walks only; have them 20 to 24 inches back, anchored so they cannot be moved and between them and the walks have a bed of gravel. To the board this seemed the best way. There will inevitably be more or less spitting and it seemed to the majority of the board that the gravel would be the least objectionable. If the ground is left untouched the grass will soon be worn away and the condition of the space between the seats and the walk will look a great deal worse than a bed of gravel.

First Ward Playground.

The question of better facilities in the first ward playground was brought up. If that place is to be used it should have suitable conditions and apparatus and if not it should be abandoned. It was suggested that the lack of shade trees on most of the ground was objectionable and that the independence school ground would be much more desirable for a playground. The chair, Mrs. Weill and Mr. Gomes were named a committee to wait on the board of education at its next meeting and ascertain if such an arrangement can be made. It was suggested that there is a strong sentiment for playgrounds and several persons would be willing to help free of charge in the conducting of the enterprise the coming season.

The committee on lamp posts for the central park boulevard reported. One plan was to buy the posts from some house manufacturing them. Catalogs, photographs and price lists were shown. The objection to such a purchase would be the expense and risk. Very handsome posts are made in different places but would have to be shipped here, hauled to the place where they are to be used and set in position. If the posts can be made here the foundation will be set, the molds put in place and the concrete poured right into them and the post anchored on the spot on which it is to be used. It was feared by some that as none had been made in Jacksonville there would be danger of not getting as comely and desirable a post as if they were bought of manufacturers. The matter was left open for further consideration.

The committee on flower seeds and beds reported that the superintendent was preparing a hot bed for the purpose of generating plants for spring use. They were instructed to order such seeds as they deemed best for the purpose and get them right into the hot beds.

Some shrubs which have scale on them were reported and the superintendent was instructed to remove them.

Quite a number of the unsightly poplars have been removed and more will go yet this winter and many more next winter.

The salary of Joseph Hopper, superintendent, was increased five dollars a month and he was employed till January first, 1920.

Vandals Destroy Property.

The work of vandals about the abandoned swimming pool which had been lined with stones was reported. The superintendent was instructed to watch for them and if he can catch them to punish them severely.

The superintendent was instructed to buy a road drag suitable for two horses that the driveway may be kept in better order. A large quantity of cinders has been hauled and deposited on the driveway this winter and will be an immense benefit to the tracks thus improved.

The chair reported a nursery selling Austrian pines very reasonably and thought it would be a fine idea to get a lot of them to be planted on the south shore of the lake but Mr. Gomes said September was the months for such planting and nothing was done. The board will probably buy a lot of pecan and persimmon trees. There is also a lot of shrubbery which has sprouted up about that plant which some years ago that can be taken up and set out elsewhere and this the superintendent is doing.

POWDER PLANT WRECKED.

St. Louis, Feb. 11.—An explosion late last night wrecked the plant of the Egyptian Powder Co., two miles south of Herrin, Ill., according to advices received here early today. WILSON NOMINATED
FOR SUPREME BENCH

QUINCY MAN CHOSEN BY FOURTH JUDICIAL CON-VENTION.

Selection Made on 171st Ballot at Ten O'clock Tuesday Night—
C. E. Chipfield of Canton Led in Earlier Ballots—Later Judge
Wood of Moline and Mr. Wilson
Were Close Contestants.

Bushnell, Feb. 11.—(Special.)—On the 171st ballot tonight the Republican convention of the fourth judicial district gave George H. Wilson of Quincy the nomination for judge of the Illinois supreme court.

Mr. Wilson's election came after many hours of balloting. In the earlier ballots Claude E. Chipfield of Canton was the favorite with 45 votes to his credit. He continued to lead during most of the sixty ballots cast in the afternoon session. John J. Reeve of Jacksonville was made the permanent chairman of the convention and Earl Shields of Monmouth permanent secretary.

Adjournment was taken at 5 o'clock until 7:30 o'clock, when the balloting was resumed. There were many vote changes but in a short time the contest leveled down to a race between W. T. Wood of Moline and George H. Wilson of Quincy. Sixty-five votes were necessary to secure the nomination and on the 171st ballot at 10 o'clock the record of the clerk showed that Mr. Wilson had received 66 votes. He was therefore declared the nominee of the convention and the action taken on motion of the Rock Island county delegation was made unanimous.

On the first ballot the vote was: Claude E. Chipfield, Canton, 45.

George H. Wilson, Quincy, 31.
W. T. Church, Alton, 11.
Charles A. E. Martin, Virginia, 15.

W. T. Wood, Moline, 27.

This continued after the selective vote during the afternoon session. The Morgan county delegation was headed by Hon. Thomas Worthington as chairman. The delegates went uninstructed and their vote changed at various stages of the contest. On the final ballot seven of the Morgan county delegates voted for Mr. Wilson; one for Wood and two for Chipfield.

PRIMARY PETITIONS
FILED IN SPRINGFIELD

For the first time since the municipal campaign began, candidates today were free to outline their policies and lay their wires without fear of new elements and new opponents entering into consideration. Only two candidates for commissioner filed during the closing hours Monday afternoon. They were Attorney William J. Butler and John H. Requa. They brought the total number of candidates for commissioner to 13. Five are making the race for mayor.

Members of the Law and Order League met at the Y. W. C. A. in the afternoon and outlined their campaign for J. F. Macpherson for mayor and for John G. Ruckel and John A. Wheeler, candidates for commissioners. The primary is to be held Feb. 25. Following is the list of candidates in the alphabetical order they will appear on the ticket.

WILSON WILL RETURN TO PEACE CONFERENCE

PARIS, Feb. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—Evidence of President Wilson's intention not to abandon the peace conference upon the ratification of the society of nations plan was found in the disclosure yesterday of his plan to return from Washington to Paris by March 15. This involves so brief a stay at Washington as to permit only the signing of bills during the closing hours of congress. It is understood that Mr. Wilson intends to give personal attention in Paris to the work of the supreme executive council which promises to be the most important feature of the peace conference after the disposal of the society of nations.

Interesting industry in the work of the supreme council of the peace conference is expected today. The draft of the plan for the society of nations will be before the commission for second reading and it is probable that it will be prepared for action by a plenary session of the conference late in the week. Unity continues to prevail that the commission's reports will be adopted.

WRIGHT LETTER STARTS ROW IN HOUSE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 11.—A letter sent to state institutions and departments by Omar H. Wright, director of the state department in this budget, then I employees refrain from importuning legislators for changes in the state budget, brought about a storm in the house appropriations committee today.

Mr. Wright, who appeared before the committee on general legislation was catechized by committee members who demanded to know whether the finance department was attempting to dictate the manner in which the money of the state should be spent. Republican and Democratic members joined in expressions of disapproval of the letter which said any state employee who persisted in appeals to legislators for readjustments in the budget "affecting them individually" might be "disciplined."

"If the legislator is to be made a mere rubber stamp to O. K. the appropriations of the finance department in this budget, then I think we ought to know it," declared Michael Igoe, Democratic leader.

Mr. Wright explained that his department had no disposition to force the legislature to follow the recommendations in the budget. The attitude of the appropriations committee was looked upon as foreshadowing debate when consideration of the budget is before a joint session of both houses next Tuesday morning. Governor Lowden, Mr. Wright and Superintendent of Budget McLain have been invited to speak on the budget and answer questions of members.

CONSPIRACY CHARGE AGAINST PROFESSOR

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Government charges of conspiracy to obstruct the nation's war program contained in indictments against Scott Nearing, former University professor, and the American Socialist society collapsed today when the prosecution completing its case, failed to establish commercial collaboration on the part of the defendants in the publication of Nearing's anti-war, anticapitalist pamphlet, "The Great Madness."

On motion of Seymour Steadman, chief counsel for the defense, Judge Mayer dismissed the first two of the four counts of the indictment charging conspiracy to cause insubordination and conspiracy to obstruct enrollment in the armed forces of the United States. The remaining counts alleging attempts on the part of both defendants to cause insubordination and to obstruct recruiting were upheld and the defense was opened with the testimony of Nearing.

FUNERAL NOTICE

Funeral services for J. A. Obermeyer will be held from the residence, 214 North Church street, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in charge of the Rev. W. R. Johnson of Winchester, Dr. A. A. Todd, pastor of the First Baptist church, of which Mr. Obermeyer was a member, being unable to officiate because of illness.

Is your automobile an expensive vehicle? Most people would answer yes, to that question. Do you know that SPEED is the one thing that adds the most expense?

The very instant a body is set in motion, friction commences; friction is what wears out your automobile.

The faster the body moves, the more friction. Consequently, the quicker it destroys itself.

To make your car a REAL PLEASURE VEHICLE, with a minimum of expense, drive with care; keep down the speed, and buy your accessories and supplies from us.

WITH THE COLORS

FROM C. W. YANCY.

Mrs. John Young of Litchberry is in receipt of the following letter from her brother, C. W. Yancy, with the 4th Battery Camp Hunt, France:

Camp Hunt, Jan. 10, '19.
Dear Sisters:
Well I will now answer your letter which I received yesterday dated Dec. 9th. You will have to excuse me for not writing sooner, because I have been so busy, except at nights. We have no lights, only candles, in our barracks now and they don't give much light. I have been writing home often and I know you could hear from me. I can write often now after I begin getting mail. I haven't much news to write as every thing is very quiet over here. I was glad to hear that you were all well and sorry to hear of so many deaths. I'll bet it is awful around there. Things will be changed when I get back.

Well, we are having plenty of rain over here. There is not much sickness, only colds and mumps. You get a cold over here in this country and you never get over it. We are well back of the front lines now. If the war had kept on we would have been right in it by this time. When we landed in France we were called right away but the order was cancelled and we've been drifting around ever since.

We are having plenty of cats now; but it isn't like mother's meals. I don't think it will be very long before I will be back again. You asked me if I wanted to come home. I would be glad to sail any time to get back in the good old U. S. A. What is John doing? The last I heard he was carrying mail. Tell Helen I was glad she sent the papers for I sure enjoyed reading them. I got a letter from home, one from Coy the same day I got yours. I will get plenty when I get all you have written. A letter sure looks good over here. We all run when we hear mail call and if we don't get any we feel disappointed.

Well, I guess I had better bring this to a close. There is no use for me to ask questions. I got the box from home all O. K. and sure was glad to get it. Well I will close as I want to write home. This leaves me feeling fine and hope it finds you all the same. I am as ever

Marolles, France,
Sunday, Dec. 29, 1918.

Dear Mother:
I will write you a few lines to let you know that I am as well as usual and I hope these few lines will find you all well. We are having some fine weather over here now and I hope it will continue so until I come home, or at least until I leave the shores of France.

I am awfully sorry that you and sis and Rollie had the influenza, but I am also glad that you got over it. I had it myself but it didn't hurt me very much. I suppose you have plenty of snow in Illinois now. We haven't had any yet but I am looking for it here next month.

We had a fine Christmas dinner, considering the fact that there were so many of us to feed and we are scattered all over Europe, too. Well I am back with my old outfit again and I suppose I will go home as soon as I can. I will leave from all appearances we will leave here some time in January. I guess the old deep blue

If I get paid before I leave here I will buy some souvenirs and bring back with me. I have been in the hospital so much I haven't been able to sign the payroll but once in five months. I guess when we go back we will all go back to Camp Sevier, S. I am going to spring a surprise on someone, believe me.

From Capt. Louis C. Johnston

The following extracts from a letter written to R. Collins by his nephew, Capt. Louis C. Johnston, will be read with interest by many. Capt. Johnston, who is at Field Hospital No. 130, 108th Sanitary Train, writes from a little town in the vicinity of Luxembourg, Germany. He says:

At present am in a beautiful little town between some big rocks, about ten miles north of the city of Luxembourg. I have been here for a month or two, then we will be sent back again into Germany as occupation troops for a month or so, then home. At present am enjoying myself. Am very busy all morning caring for the sick of the 132nd infantry regiment, which is one of the four in the 33rd division, but have nothing to do military in the afternoon.

Expect to see a good deal of trouble over here before peace is fully settled. Am very glad President Wilson came over, and also heard today that Roosevelt would be here. This peace conference will be such a big affair, the more of our really big men here the better, as Germany will have to sign anything the allies expect to see with the U. S. But take the U. S. out and Germany could easily raise an army that would control all Europe within a year. She had practically won the war July 4th when U. S. troops entered into the fighting.

Have had some wonderful experiences here. Have been shell-gassed, machine gunned, and shot at with rifles, and fortunately I had not a scratch. Would not go through it again, or take a better chance for it. When I am back in U. S. I will be in central Illinois for about a week, then probably back to Chicago unless I go to N. Y. for six months or a year to do some eye, nose and throat work I have in mind. Maybe you would be interested in prices here: small cake of soap, $4.00; one tallow candle, $2.00; all meat, 50c-75c a pound; pair of socks $4.00. No tobacco, lard, yeast, sugar, coffee, but of course in U. S. army we get good rations. Much better than civilians here. Had a goose Christmas, which cost $8.00 and will have one New Year's, six of us officers. I bought a 150 pound pig (dressed) for my company Christmas. They ate my dinner in an old castle in this town. We had a really good time.

Wishing you a very Happy New Year.

Your nephew,
Louis C. Johnston.

J. B. Snyder 1004 North Main street, this city has the following letters from his brother Lewis P. Snyder who is in the 33rd division of the army of occupation. The helmet of which he speaks was received Saturday.

Schieren, Luxembourg Jan. 7.

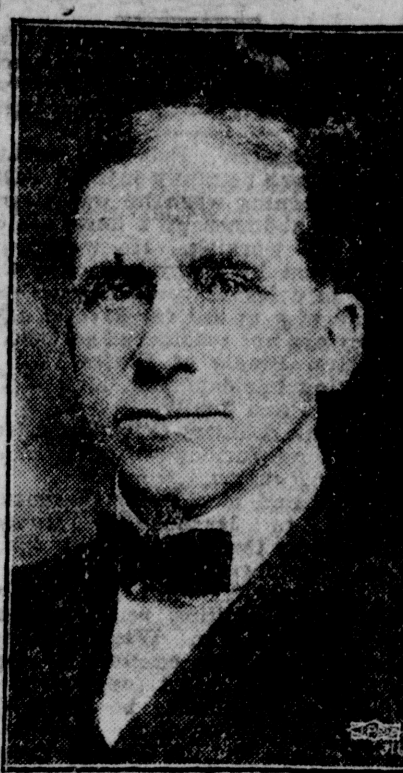

Dear Brother and Family:
Received your most welcome letter yesterday and was glad to hear from you all, and to hear that all are well. This finds me enjoying the best of health. You ask me if we were in the lines when the armistice was signed? Yes we were in the front lines at Wadenville and getting a lot of shells. We were facing an open furnace when the firing stopped at 11 a. m. and was sure glad of it. We stayed there in the lines then for fourteen days after the armistice, and then went back to a rest camp at Rupt, stayed there eleven days, then started on this long hike, and we are here in Chieren, and have been here since the 12th of December, but do not know how long we will be here or where we go from here, but do not think we will be in the states for a long time yet, but when we do, I'll be home first to see you all. Those papers I have never received one since we have been in France. We do not get half our mail here. And don't suppose you get near all I write you. I sent you a German helmet the other day thru the mail but doubt if you ever get it. It is so unhandy to carry anything around with us, so I'll not bring any thing back when we come only what I can carry in my pockets. Just got orders to move back tomorrow about five miles. Hope it is as good a place as this one, for we have quite a time here. Well I think I had better ring off for this time, hoping to hear from you again soon.

As ever your Brother,
Lewis.

His wife, before her marriage, was Miss Fannie Hall, daughter of the late John W. Hall. She is the sister of Mrs. H. L. Griswold and of William E. Harry and Julian Hall of this city.

For nearly twenty years Mr. Wilson has been a member of the Adams county bar and a successful practitioner there. He is now serving as a member of the Illinois legislature, having been re-elected thru several terms to represent his district. He has been very active in the legislature in the support of dry measures and has for some time been the floor leader on all temperance legislation. HAS SOUVENIR PAPER
FROM WAR FRONT

Henry Pinkerton Greatly Prizes
Copy of General Order No. 33
Issued to Third Division.

Henry Pinkerton of the Y. M. C. A. service has among his documents one which he prizes especially highly. It is a copy of general orders No. 33 issued near Chateau Thierry to the third division of the American expeditionary forces. Comparatively few general orders were issued and that fact makes this souvenir all the more valuable. The order has special interest, too, from the fact that such warm commendation is given of Y. M. C. A. work. It reads as follows:

1. The commanding general desires to make of record in the General Orders of this division his appreciation of the part taken by the members of the Y. M. C. A. who have been attached to this division and actively carried on their work in all its phases during the time that this division was in contact with the enemy from May 31 to July 30.

2. During the days beginning July 14 when the enemy made their attack and for days and nights afterwards, the Y. M. C. A., through its faithful members at their posts of duty, not only with chocolate and cakes and tobacco cheered our soldiers, but were of efficient assistance to our medical staff in caring for wounded. Hot chocolate was served in many cases, free, both day and night to the wounded and to the ambulance drivers.

3. While the men of the Y. M. C. A. were with the troops in the front line, the young women of the Y. M. C. A. were detailed with the hospitals and the medical staff of this division bear testimony of their most efficient help during these two weeks of great strain.

4. The conduct of these self-sacrificing and brave men and women who have so unhesitatingly given their services to their country, establishes a standard of prestige, exceptional courage, devotion and resource, which the commanding general particularly commends.

5. A copy of this order will be furnished to each member of the Y. M. C. A. who has been on duty with this division.

By command of Major General Dickman.

THE NEW CITY COUNCIL

Editor Journal:

Jacksonville needs some wise men at the coming election to take charge of city affairs. The business affairs of the city are in deplorable shape—with no money and a huge floating debt—the best business ability will be required to guide public affairs.

No man should try to get into the council unless he has had business experience in handling large financial affairs. The city indebtedness, the water works construction are two large problems that must be met. No man should be sent to the council because he can get the colored vote, or the Portuguese or the Irish or the Yank vote. This is not the time for the politician, the hand shaker, or the vote getter. This is pre-eminently the day for the real big business man to take hold of city affairs, otherwise the rock and the rocks and shipwreck.

Let all of us little fellows stand aside this time, and let the Napoleons of finance take on the job. Our time may come later. The city can be piloted over its present difficulties, but nothing but wise and unselfish effort will do it.

To the voter I want to say: Never vote for a man because he is a "good fellow." The "good fellow" as a rule is good for nothing, there are exceptions, but as a rule he smiles and draws the salary—nothing more. The men who do things are not the "good fellows."

fellows"—a good fellow is often a business fool, not always, but too often.

Men who can put through difficult things, are the men needed for the next council. No posers or gallery players, or men who "need the office." The city is in too bad a hole to take care of any man's needs. The public interests demand red blooded competent men of affairs, and the spirit that drove the Liberty Bond sales, and the Red Cross subscriptions. The welfare of this city is in jeopardy. This is no time for the horse play of politics. Serious business confronts us. The law provides a very objectionable way in the primary election law of selecting agents to attend to the business of the city, but till the law is repealed it is the best we have.

It is your fault and mine if we do not get competent men. This city is rich in competent experienced men. Nine red blooded business men can save the day in Jacksonville. Nine block heads can wreck it so hopelessly that no man can predict what the future may hold in store for us.

ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL SERVICE AT MEREDOSIA

Service at Methodist Church in Honor of Late ex-President Roosevelt were held Sunday evening at Ray's Opera house, beginning at seven o'clock. Rev. D. L. Jeffers, pastor of the Methodist church, acted as chairman of the evening. The doxology was sung by the audience, led by the Methodist church choir, which was followed by prayer and scripture reading by Rev. Jeffers. The choir then rendered an anthem, "How Firm a Foundation." C. E. Rice of McKendree Chapel then gave an interesting talk on "Roosevelt in Action." This was followed by a vocal solo, "At Eventide," by Mrs. L. H. Wegelhoff, J. D. McLain and Dr. F. A. Nevill then gave short talks of interest. A quartet composed of Rev. Jeffers, William Pond, Mrs. G. M. Burrus and Mrs. T. W. Burdick, with Mrs. L. H. Yost as accompanist sang "He's Gone." The speaker of the evening, Rev. T. L. Hancock of Covington, Tenn., was then presented. His address was interesting and full of truths of the life of the departed. The gathering was then dismissed with the singing of "America" and the benediction.

The funeral of Miss Fanny Naylor was held from the home of Mrs. Mary Naylor at noon Friday. The services were in charge of Rev. D. L. Jeffers, pastor of the Methodist church in this city, assisted by Rev. Thomas Simons, pastor of the Concord Methodist church. A quartet composed of William Pond, W. G. Looman, Mrs. G. M. Burrus and Mrs. W. G. Looman sang "Home of the Soul," "Asleep in Jesus" and "The Land of Beulah." The floral offerings were cared for by Mrs. L. H. Yost, Mrs. Harry Ham, Marguerite McLain and Beulah Butcher. The bearers were F. G. Taggart, J. L. McLain, L. H. Yost, W. G. Burrus, Henry and John Naylor. The remains were laid to rest in the Newman cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nunn of Jacksonville are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nunn. Les Webster of Versailles visited relatives here Sunday. District Superintendent Flannigan of Quincy will preach next Sunday morning at the Methodist church and will hold the quarterly conference in the afternoon. Rev. D. L. Jeffers went to Quincy Monday and returned in the evening with his son Wayne who has been under quarantine there for several weeks with scarlet fever.

L. E. Deppe of Jacksonville visited relatives here Sunday. The Eastern Star order of this place held a farewell reception at their hall Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fields who will depart this week for Macomb.

JACKSONVILLE WILL HAVE NEW BUS LINE

A. J. Patrick Will Put in Motor Equipment—Expects to Be Ready for Business Early in March.

Within a few weeks Jacksonville will have an up-to-date motor bus line. Since the sale of the J. W. Wood's equipment it has been kept in service. Now, however, that line has quit business and the hotels are depending on private service.

A. J. Patrick who has been operating a taxi cab service has ordered two Miller motor busses from the company plant in Quincy and expects to have them in service about March 10. The busses have a capacity of 14 passengers and will operate between all railroad stations and hotels.

He has also ordered a one ton motor truck for hauling baggage and expects to have it in service within a few days. In addition to his motor bus service Mr. Patrick has five taxis for quick service and to serve citizens throughout the city.

That Mr. Patrick is to put in modern equipment should be welcome news to the traveling public as Jacksonville for a number of years past has not had adequate service in that line. Mr. Patrick has not as yet selected his headquarters for his new line but will be in some centrally located place that will enable him to give quick and satisfactory service.

PLAN FOR SOLDIER RECORDS FROM COUNTY

Residents in Neighborhood to South Ready to Co-Operate With Local Committee.

J. F. Claus, driving in a handsome Oakland car, took a Journal representative on a trip to the southeast part of Morgan county yesterday. The first stop was made at the store of Harry Fanning at Nortonville, where the proprietor is conducting a successful establishment. Nortonville can well be proud of its park, which is unusual for a town of that size. It affords a splendid place for all public gatherings. The Nortonville school is doing good work this year under the direction of Miss Gordon and Miss Chandole. Another mercantile establishment is that conducted by William Steele.

Another stop was made at the home of John Miller, located a short distance south of Nortonville. Arrangements were made with Mr. Miller for securing a record of each soldier in that locality during the war. Mr. Miller has a son, Russell Miller, who has just returned from army service. He enlisted Sept. 21, 1917, and was sent first to Camp Taylor, then to Chillicothe, Ohio, and afterward Camp Mills, N. Y. In September he was sent overseas. The troops landed at Liverpool, then went on to Havre, France, then located near Bordeaux. They were on the way to the front when the armistice was signed.

From the Nortonville neighborhood the Jacksonville men drove to Centerville and made a stop at the thriving store of S. M. Arnett. In the Centerville neighborhood they have a Baptist church where services are held once in three weeks by Rev. Alexander Weber of Hettick. The Sunday school is under the direction of Mrs. A. B. Pitchford. Arrangements were made with Mr. Arnett for compiling the soldier records which are desired.

Having completed their visit at Nortonville, the travelers turned toward Franklin and on the way passed the shop of Gus Seymour, where he has been in business for seventeen years and has built up an extensive trade. At Franklin the arrangements were made with H. G. Keplinger and M. B. Keplinger of the Franklin bank for compiling the desired records. The trip was made mainly for the purpose of arranging for these records and the committee is under obligations to Mr. Claus for the service he rendered in furnishing the car.

Members of Harmony Lodge A. F. and A. M., and visiting brethren are requested to assemble at Masonic Temple this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock to attend the funeral of our deceased brother, J. A. Obermeyer.

F. W. Bristow, W. M. John R. Phillips, Secy.

KAPPA DELTA CLASS HELD MEETING

A business meeting of the Kappa Delta class of Central Christian church was held at the home of Miss Ruth Ferguson, 736 South Church street, Monday night. There was a large representation of the class present and the evening was very profitably spent. Discussion of questions relative to the welfare of the class occupied so much of the evening that only a comparatively short time was given over to the social program. ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL AT WHITE HALL

Services at Princess Theatre Sunday Afternoon Largely Attended—Good Prospect for Securing German Field Piece—Other White Hall News Notes.

White Hall, Feb. 11.—Roosevelt memorial services, addressed by Hon. C. J. Doyle of Springfield were held in Princess theatre Sunday afternoon, being the only observance of the kind in Greene county in conformity with congressional recommendation, and there were present representative citizens from Roodhouse and Greenfield. The theatre was beautifully and appropriately decorated, and the singing was by a large chorus of men under the direction of Miss Emma Duncan, member of the well known quartet of Duncan sisters Rev. E. C. Lucas sang "The Harbor Bar." Rev. Leo Howard presided. Mr. Doyle was accompanied by his wife and they were guests of Mrs. J. N. Winters.

Mr. Doyle has spoken in White Hall many times, but never with more effectiveness, and he began his address with an unfailing compliment to the citizens of the town who were his genuine friends in younger days when friendships counted much. He traced the life of Roosevelt from the cradle to the grave, likening him as the antithesis of Lincoln. Lincoln was born in poverty and rose to the head of the nation in spite of it. Roosevelt was born with riches and the choice of a life of ease, and he rose in spite of it to the presidency of the United States, the most exalted honor in the world. It was the subject matter no less than masterful oratory that held the audience for an hour and a half, and the occasion, dealing with the far-seeing vision of Roosevelt and his contribution of his sons to the country's service, specifically the death of Quentin Roosevelt, including a quotation from Roosevelt's Centennial address at Springfield was received in tears by those in the least emotionally inclined. Mr. Doyle holds a first place in the hearts of White Hall people.

Rainey on German Cannon Prospects.

It was noted some time ago that Congressman Rainey had introduced a bill in congress directing the war department to donate a captured German cannon or field piece to White Hall. The following letter indicates the prospects: and will be information to the many other towns seeking a like donation:

Washington, D. C., January 31, 1919.
Robert C. Boehm, Mayor, White Hall, Illinois.

My Dear Mr. Boehm: Your communication is received, signed also by other officials of the City of White Hall, in the matter of my efforts to secure a cannon for White Hall. I desire to assure you that I will do everything possible and I sincerely hope I will be successful.

Of course, these cannon are yet in France, and it is not known how many will be brought back from France, nor when. There are at least twenty times as many applications than there will be cannon, and the number of applications is still increasing. I do not know how that matter will be adjusted, probably in the order of the bills filed. Your application came reasonably early; therefore, I hope we will be successful.

I thank you sincerely for the invitation to deliver an address in White Hall on the day this field piece is dedicated, and the invitation is accepted with pleasure. I am compelled to accept, however, subject to my duties here in Washington. I hope to be able to get away oftener in the future that I have been in the immediate past. Since the war started in Europe, over four years ago, I have not been out of Washington to exceed ten days in all.

Very truly yours,
Henry T. Rainey.

The service will be resumed in a few days."

CHICKEN PIE SUPPER AT LITERBERRY

Women of Baptist Church Plan Supper for Thursday Evening—Mr. and Mrs. Warren Daniels to Reside on C. A. Beavers Farm—Other News Notes From Literature.

The Literature Baptist Sunday school has purchased new singing books and used them for the first time, Sunday morning. Rev. Smith of Greenville came up Saturday evening, bringing his wife with him; they spent the night with friends and on Sunday the preacher filled his regular appointment both morning and evening. The subject for the morning was, "Thy Kingdom Come, Thy Will Be Done" from Matthew 6:10.

The Chapman family, who have been having the influenza, are all getting along nicely. Riley Young who boards with the Chapmans, has moved to Literature and now puts up at John Young's.

D. K. McCarthy who has been confined to his room for about two weeks with a second attack of malaria, is improving.

Mrs. J. M. Litter is ill with pleurisy and pneumonia. Dr. Obermeyer is the attending physician.

Amanda Hixon has received word from her old schoolmate, Miss Mabel Parks of Winchester, that she expects to be married soon. Miss Marks is a native of Literature and has the best wishes of the community.

Robert Laverne of Southwest of Literature has a car here, loaded with household goods and farming implements, which he will ship to Texas, where he and his family

LIVED TWO YEARS ON RAW EGG DIET

John H. Packer Gains 44 Pounds and Now Eats Anything—Suffered 20 Years.

"When a man has had to live for two years on nothing much except raw eggs, on account of stomach trouble and then finds a medicine that fixes him up in less than two months so he can eat sauer kraut, meats of all kinds and anything else he wants, I think it is time for him to talk for the benefit of others. Well, Tanlac has done all this for me and more, for I am now forty-four pounds heavier than I was the day I began taking it and am now enjoying better health than I have in at least fifteen years."

was the remarkable statement made by John H. Packer, patentee and proprietor of the Packer Oil Filter, who lives at Liberty, Mo., recently.

"For twenty years or more," he continued, "I have suffered with my stomach and although I have spent thousands of dollars nothing ever helped me until I got Tanlac. My appetite left me entirely, and what little I did eat would almost double me up with pain and I would bloat up with gas until I could scarcely breathe. During the past five years, especially, I have suffered a great deal from constipation, felt tired out all the time, had no energy, and was so drowsy and listless that I tried to talk business to a man it was an effort to express what I wanted to say. My health finally got so bad that I was forced to give up a splendid position in Potomac, Idaho, and nobody, except those in the same condition can fully understand how I suffered."

"I had almost lost faith in all medicines, as I had tried so many without results, but Tanlac certainly has been a revelation to me. I can now eat just anything I want and never experience a particle of trouble. I have never had a better appetite, and all signs of indigestion, gas, and distress after eating are gone. Tanlac has also relieved me of constipation and strengthened and built me up until I feel as full of energy as when a boy. When I first started on Tanlac I weighed one hundred and twenty-four pounds, but I now weigh one hundred and sixty-eight and a half and this shows how well suited to my case Tanlac was."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve.

LINCOLN AND ANN RUTLEDGE

The following article was written by J. G. Patterson of this county and is based largely on the facts given in a pamphlet issued by the Old Salem Memorial Association. Mr. Patterson declares that anyone who believes that Lincoln's years at Old Salem were not useful and fruitful are very much in error.

Late in the fall of 1834 Lincoln all dress up in a brand new suit of butter-nut jeans—left New Salem and made his way to the state capital at Vandalia to take up his duties as law maker.

Up to this time this was the most momentous event in his life. In the same fall 1834 Ann Rutledge left her home at Concord, about 5 miles north of New Salem—to attend school at Jacksonville. And up to this time this very like-ly was the greatest event of her life.

It is an interesting coincidence that in the same fall 1834 Stephen A. Douglas procured license to practice law and opened an office on the north side of the public square just west of the Mansion house, Jacksonville, Ill.

And up to this time this was the most important event of his life.

Whether or not Douglas and Ann Rutledge were acquainted is silent.

But as every body in a small town knows everybody else, it is reasonable to suppose that they may have been.

Whether they were or not it is quite probable that they frequently met on the streets and that they exchanged glances for both were handsome and quite striking in appearance. Be that as it may Ann Rutledge diligently pursued her studies and Douglas as diligently pursued his law practice, neither suspecting what fate had in store for them.

Ann Rutledge knew that she was betrothed to a very talented young man, but that he was destined to mount to the very pinnacles of fame probably never entered her mind.

Resumed Study of Law.

Well the school year closed as all school years do, and the legislature closed as all legislatures generally do, and Ann Rutledge returned to her home in Concord and Lincoln to his home in New Salem. Lincoln took up his duties as postmaster and surveyor, and resumed the study of law with greater vigor than ever, and he also seemed to have quite a good deal of business in the vicinity of Concord, and Ann Rutledge had frequent occasions to visit New Salem. It had been her home for 5 years, 1829-1834.

She would naturally be expected to visit her old friends especially as she had been a great favorite among them. And then the groceries from her old home may have tasted better, or the calico prints looked prettier. Anyway she possessed a good saddle and horse and as every one knows horseback riding in the open air and up and down a beautiful river road is a most exhilarating and healthy exercise, especially when there is something worth while at the end of it. As all these perquisites were hers why shouldn't she visit New Salem? But there was another attraction greater than any of these in the person of a tall, dark skinned young law-maker and prospective lawyer who was a very fine talker and story teller and who had just won fame in the legislature along that line.

Favorites in Community.
Lincoln and Ann Rutledge were both great favorites in the community and were often together, and were often seen lingering at the town well just south of the Rutledge tavern, or strolling leisurely through the streets of the village. To them the sky was bright, the air was balmy, the flowers were fragrant and the birds sang sweetly.

The exact date was not set, but everything else was arranged and they were to be married in the late fall. But before the summer was ended James Rutledge wrote the following in the family bible "Anna Mayes Rutledge departed this life August 25th, 1835."

She was taken sick with brain fever about the middle of August and her illness was of short duration. She was buried in the little graveyard near their home at Concord. There she rested for about 60 years when an undertaker Samuel Montgomery of Petersburg exhumed the remains and removed it to Oakland cemetery just at the outskirts, south west of Petersburg. It is marked with a boulder from her old home at New Salem, with simply the words "Ann Rutledge" thereon.

Ann Rutledge was fair, with blue eyes, hair light verging into auburn, slightly built and a handsome face, and if there is attraction between opposites no wonder they were attracted each to the other.

In disposition she was bright, lively, versatile, vivacious, studious, and religiously inclined. She possessed talent above the average and if she had lived would have graced the White House with credit to herself and husband and also to her state and country.

Sallie Rutledge youngest sister of Ann Rutledge was born at New Salem, Oct. 20, 1829 and is still living. She is living with her son at Siquito, Santa Barbara, county, California.

She has donated to the "Old Salem Lincoln League" the sad-dle her sister Ann rode along the beautiful river road to and from New Salem. Also the Rutledge family bible published in 1814 and the coffee pot her mother used while Lincoln was her guest and boarder.

These souvenirs will be a part of the furnishings of the new tavern when it is furnished which will probably be next summer. It is already built. Lincoln often read from this family bible and of course drank coffee made in the coffee pot. It is interesting as well as sad to know that James Rutledge died just 3 months and 21 days after his daughter Ann.

Lincoln and Ann Rutledge being great favorites, her death cast a deep gloom over the whole community.

It seemed that every man woman and even the children joined in sympathy with Lincoln in his great sorrow, and all were anxious to do something to alleviate his grief.

Lincoln returned from the funeral very sad and dejected. He wandered a great deal over the hills, through the woods, and by the banks of the river. For a time he ate little and sleep almost deserted him. Bowling Green took him to his home and gave him a room and sympathy. "Aunt Nancy," Green's wife mothered him and cared for him until the poignancy of his grief was assuaged.

Many pilgrimages were made by him to her grave where he would sit seeking to commune with her spirit. He was too strong a character to give up wholly to despair and as time passed became his old self once more, yet his life thereafter was "somewhat different."

Two years later he returned from serving his second term in the legislature, loaded with new honors.

His friends greeted him with expressions of gladness and many compliments, after which he journeyed to the little cemetery where he had so often journeyed before and sat beside her grave motionless for a long time. His thoughts while sitting there if reduced to words would make interesting reading but they have never been revealed.

As he came through Springfield on his journey home he procured a license to practice law and formed a partnership with Mayor John T. Stewart his "Black Hawk War" friend. The next day he left New Salem for his new home with a benediction from everyone. They told him goodbye with many prophecies that he would be heard from later in greater things.

And verily they were not disappointed. His going cast a pall over the village, from which it never fully recovered.

Six years before Lincoln had come to New Salem a friendless overgrown boy, uncouth and uneducated, with a knowledge of only the barest rudiments of reading writing and arithmetic, groping his way blindly with no definite plans for the future, but a great ambition to amount to something.

Here he found fertile soil for developing his talent.

New Salem was a high class community, containing many representative citizens. They were quick to see his talent, honesty, capability and industry. He was soon a great favorite and they helped and encouraged him in every way they could. His industry was marvelous. To illustrate, he borrowed law books of Mayor Stewart of Springfield. When he had finished one he would take it back and get another.

When making these journeys, either on horseback or a foot he would study all the way along the road going and coming.

And so with all his studies, he hated to lose a minute. To him time was more valuable, than money and education more precious than gold.

When not busy he talked constantly. At meal time, at parties and public gatherings he was the life of the company. His recreation consisted of discussing live topics, philosophizing in general and telling stories.

New Salem was indeed his alma mater and bestowed on him the degree of H. A. (Honest Abe) which never forsook him.

Window Lighting and Display

The well lighted store window attracts the passerby, but ordinarily he has only time to take in the story of but one article, and there must be enough of that one article, to make an impression that will stick, be it toothpicks or rings, kitchen cabinets or hats—tell one story at a time and tell it well.

First then every display window must be effectively lighted in order to attract the passerby, and second the object displayed must be sufficiently striking to catch the fancy and make the impression that sticks.

Window display is but silent salesmanship, selling by means of object lessons, and to present the right appeal and convey the lesson intended a study of light effects must be made.
